

LOCALS

June term of court adjourned to day.

The Wailuku school children were given a luau in Iao Valley yesterday by their teachers.

The Waikapu boys are organizing a base ball nine and will soon be ready to join the league.

The long, hot wave has at length passed, and cool, showery weather this week at Wailuku.

Summer vacation in the public schools of Maui begins today, and will last till September.

Mrs. A. J. Rodrigues, dressmaker, has the agency for BUTTERICK'S PATTERNS for the Island of Maui.

If you want a dainty, refreshing and healthful toothwash, write to Hackfeld & Co., Honolulu, for ODOL.

If you want a quick lot of job work done cheap and neatly, send your order to the News job office.

The Puunenes have challenged the Wailukus for a match game of base ball at Kahului on the Fourth, for a purse of $50.

Have you ordered some of those sofa cushion covers from the Coyne Furniture Co.? Address P. O. Box 621, Honolulu.

The Ladies' Guild will give an entertainment at Alexander Hall this evening, to which all are cordially invited. Music and refreshments.

Work is progressing on the new baseball grounds as fast as funds can be collected, and the initial game on the new diamond is not far ahead.

Uncle Sam has ordered the U. S. District Attorney to initiate proceedings to condemn and purchase lands at Pearl Harbor for government purpose. Naturally.

Now that the excitement of the term of court is over, it is high time to take up the matter of the races for the Fourth. But little time is left, and a good race meeting should be worked up.

The movements of the Kinau and Claudine are painfully erratic these days, and about the only way to catch either of them is to go and camp at the wharf the day before they are expected to arrive.

LOST.—A pocketbook on Market St. last Sunday night, containing $2.35, and a paper on which was written the name, "J. A. G. Cooper." If found, kindly return same to Capt. Bamberg.

Legislative matters in Honolulu are very tame and profitless this week, nothing having been done worth mentioning, and not much likelihood of anything being accomplished this summer, at the present rate of speed.

F. Burlem, the energetic contractor has solved the problem of being in two places at once, being engaged in building the teachers' residence at Alexander Hall, Wailuku, and also handling a contract for building work at Kahului.

Flags for the Glorious Fourth, from three inches to forty feet in length, can be had by writing to the enterprising house of Pearson, Potter & Co., Honolulu, whose new Flag ad appears this week. Send them your mail orders at once.

MAUNAOLU SEMINARY.

Closing Day Exercises.

On last Wednesday, Maunaolu Seminary held its closing day exercises in the presence of a large number of the parents and friends of the pupils, as well as others interested in the school.

The school rooms and reception hall were beautifully decorated with flowers, and at the stroke of nine the girls marched into the school room, all dressed in white.

The forenoon was entirely devoted to school exercises and rhetorical exercises, in all of which the pupils gave evidence of the excellence and thoroughness of the work being done at Maunaolu.

At the close of the regular exercises, a number of brief but interesting addresses were made by the visitors, including Hon. H. P. Baldwin, Reverends Timoteo and Kalino and W. O. Aiken.

Following was a very interesting event, the planting of twenty-five trees by the pupils. The visitors enjoyed this as much as any other part of the exercises, because the pupils showed so much zeal in the work, being scarcely able to wait for Mr. Baldwin to give the word to plant, before they were eagerly engaged at their tasks. The fruit of such teaching and training as this may one day mean the reforesting of Maui.

Following the tree planting exercises, an exhibition was given of the industrial work of the school, and the display of the lau hula and basket and fan work, of dresses and fancy work, sewing and, not least, of the cake and other cooking of the pupils, was flattering to the faithfulness of the teachers as well as to the skill of the pupils.

The school is to lose the services of Miss Watson, the music teacher, as she is to be married at the seminary next Thursday to Mr. Will Forbes of Honolulu. Miss Watson has done much for the musical education of the young ladies of the seminary, and her services will be missed, because it will not be an easy task to find another teacher of equal efficiency.

Consulted a Kahuna.

An amusing story is going the rounds in Wailuku concerning the medical treatment from a kahuna, received by one of our citizens who is married to a luscious Hawaiian damsel.

He had been treated by our local medics without results satisfactory to himself, or rather to his wife, who insisted that he consult a noted local kahuna who can exorcise the devils out of a man and banish them to Hilo or Molokai with neatness and dispatch. The balance of the story can best be told in the language of the invalid:

"You see, they told me that the kahuna could not do good work in the daytime, and that the best time to work on me was just after midnight. I got up a big feed for the kahuna and her friends, and by her instructions I put on the table a white rooster, a black rooster, a bottle of squareface and $3.00. Just after midnight she took me into a dark room and left me alone, telling me to stick my head out of the window. Pretty soon I felt somebody touch me on the head with a kind of rubbing motion, and presently I was told to come out, when I found that about a half a can of tinned butter had been smeared all over the top of my head. When I came out, the bottle of gin and the $3.00 had vanished, and so had my ailments, and I have felt as healthy as a kid ever since."

Chinese Registration Closed.

At midnight on Thursday the registration of Chinese was closed, with a total of 3435 on the Islands of Maui and Molokai, apportioned as follows: Wailuku, 400; Waihee, 100; Waikapu, 50; Kahului, 50; Spreckelsville, 400; Paia, 250; Hamakunapoko, 150; Huelo, 100; Kula and Makawao, 750; Kihel, 150; Olowalu, 68; Lahaina, 250; Kaanapali, 60; Hana, Keanae, Nahiku and Kipahulu, 452; scattering, 162.

Deputy Registrar Arthur Neely will at once commence the delivery of certificates, which will keep him busy for the rest of the month. On the first of July he will return to Honolulu taking all undelivered certificates with him, to be kept there till applied for by the owner.

It is claimed that the census of the Islands shows that there are not exceeding 20,000 Chinese, but about 26,000 certificates have been issued. If true, an investigation should be ordered, to discover the reason for the discrepancy.

ULUPALAKUA LEADS.

Base ball at Kahului

Two games of baseball were played at Kahului last Sunday.

The Morning Stars crossed bats with the K. R. R's in the forenoon. These are juveniles' teams, but they played an ent. amusing game, the Morning Stars winning out.

In the afternoon, in the presence of a large attendance the Ulupalakua played the Spreckelsville boys, in one of the best games yet witnessed on Maui. The two teams were well matched, but the Ulupalakua has the advantage of more practice, as the result of the game shows. The following is the score:

Ulupalakua	Spreckelsville
Catcher	Morin
Pitcher
Rosecrans	Black
First Base	Sykes
Crooks	Second Base
Keliinot	Henderson
Third Base
Naowao	McKianey
Short Stop
Bailey	Kaiaua
Right Field
Aukai	Sloan
Center Field
Kaahanui	Matthews
Left Field
Kinau	Defreese
Ulupalakua 3 2 0 5 0 0	—10
Spreckelsville 0 0 5 1 2 0	—8

A CHALLENGE.

The Puunene Base Ball Club hereby challenges the Wailuku Base Ball Club to play a match game on July 4, at the Kahului Base Ball Grounds, for a purse of $50.00, non-local players barred. Address

George Sykes, Sec. Puunene Club, Spreckelsville, Maui, H. T.

Off For The Coast.

A number of Maui teachers are taking advantage of this summer's vacation to take flying trips to the Coast and further east.

Among the number are Mr. S. Keliinot, School Inspector, Mr. W. L. Crook of Makawao and Mr. and Mrs. Rosecrans of Ulupalakua.

A Delightful Drive.

Thanks to the road board there is now a delightful drive up Iao Valley as far as the gate. Of course the road is not a turnpike, but is in good order for travel in hacks. The legislature should appropriate money to open the road to the table lands.

Personal Mention

A. W. Dow, the initial drummer for E. O. Hall & Son is working up the trade of that staunch and reliable old firm on Maui.

Dr. Chas. Davidson of Lahaina was called to Wailuku on Tuesday of this week to testify in a criminal case before the Circuit Court.

Miss Beers, the lady dentist who formerly filled a professional engagement in Wailuku, is now in Lahaina filling a like engagement.

Dr. O. E. Wall, the Honolulu dentist, filled a short professional engagement in Wailuku this week, returning to Honolulu last night.

Mr. W. G. Scott has raised $163 for the widow of the late G. F. Brittain. She desires to express her heartfelt thanks to the donors.

Mr. C. C. Kennedy, manager of the Wailuku Mill Co., Hawaii, spent several days on Central Maui this week, and left for Hilo on the Claudine.

A. T. R. Jackson, representing the Pacific Mutual Life, came over on the Kinau to deliver a number of policies and do a few write ups on Maui.

Mr. S. T. Alexander, Mr. Edw. Pollitz and Mr. Shaughnessy came over to Maui on this week's Kinau, and it is an even bet that there is big game afoot.

Dr. R. M. Stith, resident physician at Spreckelsville, will leave for Philadelphia in a couple of months to accept a position in the U. S. Marine Hospital service.

George Dunn and W. H. Decoto of Lahaina who have been faithful attendants on the petit jury in Wailuku for the past three weeks, left for home yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Thomas C. Howell, representing the Honolulu Bulletin, spent a part of the week on Maui, and materially increased the circulation of that bright and strenuous paper.

Mr. Chas. F. Seimsen has resigned his position with the Kahului R. P. Co., and returned to Honolulu. He was a very popular young man, and will be missed by his Wailuku friends.

Deputy Attorney-General De Bolt has become very popular with the bench and bar of Wailuku on account of his fairness and courtesy, as well as his ability as a prosecuting officer.

Manager Bellina of Kahikini Ranch, was married last Tuesday morning, at Honolulu, to Miss Victoria Seal, Rev. Mr. Osborne officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Bellina came over to Maui on Tuesday night's Kinau, and went directly to the rancho.
